AGRA GREYHOUND OF THE MONTH – OCTOBER 2013

“DYNA NALIN”

AGRA's Greyhound of the Month for October 2013 is dynamic West Australian sprint star Dyna Nalin. In the month of October he started three times for two wins and a second. With the crowning glory the Group 1 Top Gun at the Meadows on October 26th.

Trained by Paul Stuart, Dyna Nalin began better than expected from box eight, in the Top Gun final and was sitting in second position behind early leader Peter Rocket as a few of the major chances found trouble on the first corner.

Blessed with a withering finishing burst, Dyna Nalin reeled in Peter Rocket on the home turn, eventually powering away to a three and a quarter length victory over the early leader, with Xylia Allen half a length behind the runner up.

The Top Gun win was Dyna Nalin's second Group 1 success after he won the Perth Cup earlier in the year. He started the month of October with a win in a heat of the Mandurah Cup in the best time of the night 27.34 for the 490 metres. A week later in the final he found no end of trouble and was an outstanding performance to finish second to Te Amo after coming from last.
