The extraordinary talented sprinter just keeps doing the impossible winning in performances that less talented dogs can't produce.

Once again in a race of immense importance Xylia Allen gave outstanding top class sprinters a long lead and a beating in a devastating manner. Xylia Allen, had begun okay from box five but not far into the race she was checked and knocked from pillar to post, most dogs would not have recovered to finish worse than mid field. Not only did she recover and make up an amazing amount of ground but she raced away in the finish to record outstanding time of 29.81.
