In the straight Tureaud, named after the actor Mr T, raced clear to score by four lengths in 27.30. The win also took his stake earnings in excess of $100,000.

It was back to back WA All Stars for Paul Stuart after he won the race at Cannington last year with Coconut Grove. Due to the closure of Cannington for an upgrade it was the first time in the 39 year history of the race that it was conducted at Mandurah.

Paul Stuart explained post-race the uphill battle he has had with Tureaud since he won the Maiden Classic at the start of his career. "He is one of the better dogs I have had in a long time but he's had a horror run with injuries. He's made quite a few finals and never quite had the luck or been right on the night to win one, so it's great to turn the tables tonight." Stuart said.

When asked about his future Stuart replied. "He's a day to day proposition with injury the problem, he's as capable and as fast a dog as I have had, he has all the ability in the world it just a matter of if he hold up or not. But I would love to have him right for the Perth Cup." Stuart concluded.

Tureaud's winner's time was 27.30 for 490 metres with sections of 5.78 and 10.91.

Tureaud is a Black Dog whelped November 2012 by Kinloch Brae from Starlight Delly (Bombastic Shiraz x Winsome Bluebird) he is bred owned and trained by Paul Stuart from Nambeelup. He has raced 27 times for 15 wins and four placings with the $40,000 first prize for the WA All Stars Sprint it took his current stake earnings to $102,805.
