GCA RUN OF THE MONTH AWARD DECEMBER 2019

“ZIPPING COSMO”

The GCA Run of the Month for December 2019 has been awarded to hard chasing Queensland bitch Zipping Cosmo for her gutsy win in the Group 2 Bogie Leigh Queensland Futurity on December the 12 at Albion Park.

Zipping Cosmo in action

Zipping Cosmo looked beaten several times in the run, however she refused to give in and had her nose out at the right time to score.

Beginning okay she got shuffled back to fourth and fifth early but using great track sense she railed brilliantly around the first turn and chasing hard found the lead down the back straight, that was only for a moment as up on her outside the red runner Kooringa Lucy took control.

It was a battle royal with other chances not far away but into the home straight proper, the two front runners settled down to fight it out with Zipping Cosmo head down and chasing hard prevailed right on the line.

“She’s not the fastest bitch the in the world but she just finds a way to get her head in the frame which is a really admirable quality considering she’s done it in a Young Guns and now a Group Two Futurity,” Trainer Barry Kitchener said after the win.

“A lot of dogs struggle around that first corner at Albion Park and even though she might get back she always manages to avoid any trouble, couple that with her ability and she’s a chance in any race.”
